- So what?
 - Hosea – a story of God's unconditional love.
 - Jeremiah 31:3 – "I have loved you"
 - Romans 5:8-11 – God loves us, the sinners, the flawed, those who don't have what it takes to live up to His perfect standard—His enemies.
- Does God really love me? If so, how can I know this for sure?
 - Maybe if I just do more then He will be pleased with me.
 - Matthew 23 – woe to you serpents.
 - Isaiah 64:6 – "all our righteous deeds are like..."

- What does God really think of me?
 - Romans 6:4 – "walk in newness of life"
 - Romans 6:10 – His death was "once for all"
 - God has spoken through the cross. It is finished, the work that makes me a completely new person is done.
 - 2 Corinthians 5:17 – NEW
 - Colossians 3:3,4 – God sees Christ, not me, because I am hidden.
 - Colossians 3:12 – HOLY
 - I Corinthians 1:30 – HOLY
 - Philippians 2:13 – "it is God who is at work" in me!
 - He views me as a holy saint, not a sinner!

4. What does this really mean then?

- I need to quit wallowing in what I feel about myself and begin to truly believe in and rest in what God says about me!
- I need to begin to learn and understand who this person is who God keeps insisting I already am.
- I need to let what God says about me shape what I believe about myself.
 - This is why there is no place for shame, guilt or condemnation in my life (Romans 8:1)
 - "God is not interested in shaming people. God wants people to see who they really are." (Rob Bell – Velvet Elvis)
- I am a holy saint, a completely new creation. I really truly am!
- This does not mean that God doesn't take sin seriously – it means that I am taking seriously what God says that I am – a holy saint, new.

5. How will you now live?

- The point in my growth is not my failure, it's God's success in remaking me into the person He originally intended me to be.
- My life isn't a life of sin management, but a life of discovering my new and true identity.
- I no longer focus on the old wretchedness of my old man, but am now focusing on the newness of my new man – the real me.
- God really loves me and opened the only Way to a new life. I know this to be true.

Super God Sunday

At Bethlehem God entered the slave market where the whole human race was putting itself up for auction, prostituting itself and its humanity to a cheapened life. But on the cross the Lord Jesus paid the price, the full price for our freedom, and bought us back. This is the story of God's love and God's heart -- his loving desire to make of his people the full persons he intended them to be.

(Ray C. Stedman 0228)
