Deliverance From Temptation

The Pattern of Prayer: Spirit Needs

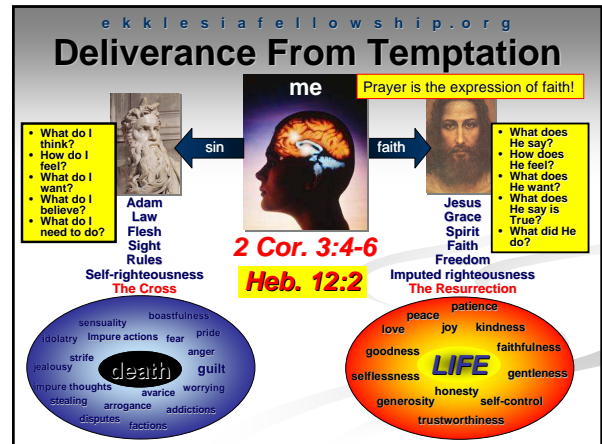

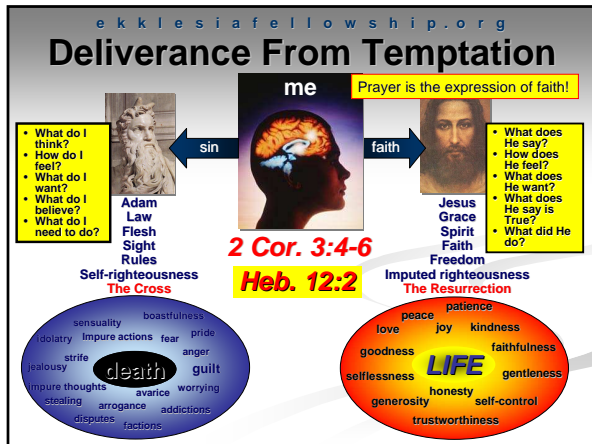

Deliverance from Temptation

- Temptation (peirasmos): trials, testing, proving.
- Two categories of temptations:
 - Those which are needed
 - Luring into temptation to produce sin
- Those which are needed.
 - James 1:2-4 – “consider it joy that you encounter trials”
 - 1 Peter 1:6-7 – various trials ... proof of your faith
 - Romans 5:3-5 – exalt in our tribulations!
- Luring into temptation
 - 1 Timothy 6:9 – the love of money and temptation
 - Luke 8:13 – “in the time of temptation fall away”

Deliverance From Temptation

- Temptation (peirasmos): trials, testing, proving, temper.
- By whom are we tempted?
 - Satan alone, for God CANNOT tempt us.
 - James 1:13-15 – lust → sin → death.

- ## Deliverance From Temptation
- Temptation (peirasmos): trials, testing, proving, temper
 - By whom are we tempted?
 - Satan alone, for God CANNOT temp us.
 - James 1:13-15 – lust → sin → death.
 - 2 Peter 2:19 – “enslaved”
 - Matthew 4:3 – “the Tempter” always plants the “if”
 - Hebrews 3:19; 12:1 – the sin of unbelief!
 - But God always provides the way of escape so that during the time of testing, we do not have to take our eyes off Him and sin → death
 - 1 Corinthians 10:13 – “THE way of escape”
 - “The Way” of escape.
 - John 14:6 – Jesus is The Way
 - Matthew 26:41 – “watch and pray”

- ## Deliverance From Temptation
- Temptation (peirasmos): trials, testing, proving, temper
 - Luke 11:4 – “Lead us not into temptation”
 - “Don’t let us succumb to temptation”
 - “Lord, do not leave us to ourselves”
 - “Lord, I am so weak and ignorant of the spiritual realm, please be my discernment to know what testing is needed for my growth and what allurements will cause me to take my eyes off you and sin.”
 - The Message: “keep us safe from ourselves”
 - Romans 8:28 – “all things” to those who love God
 - Romans 8:1 – “there is therefore now no condemnation”
